

IN THIS PART . . .

Find out what a network is and what you can do with one.

Set up Windows and Mac computers to work on a network.

Access network resources such as shared storage and network printers.

Use Microsoft Office and other software on a network.