

- Windows 10
 - accessing network resources in, 45–47
 - configuring network connections, 22–27
 - joining computer to domain, 27–29
 - logging off network in, 55
 - mapping network drives in, 47–50
 - printer sharing in, 62–64
 - sharing folders in, 59–61
- Windows Azure, 407
- Windows DHCP client, configuring, 105–106
- Windows DNS client, configuring, 110
- Windows DNS server, 109–110
- Windows Firewall, 161–163, 339
- Windows Server 2019
 - creating new domains, 208–212
 - Datacenter Edition, 177
 - DHCP server, 104–105
 - domains, 197–198
 - editions, 177, 199
 - enabling on Group Policy on, 282–283
 - Essentials Edition, 177
 - licensing, 176–178, 196–197
 - release notes, 196
 - server roles and features, 203–208
 - setting up, 198–202
 - Standard Edition, 177
 - system requirements, 196
 - workgroups, 197–198
- Windows Server Backup (WSB), 367–368
- Windows user accounts. See user accounts
- wire cutters, 120
- wireless access point (WAP)
 - about, 8, 135
 - configuring, 145–147
 - infrastructure mode, 142–143
 - multifunction, 143
 - plugging in without asking, 431
 - setting, 142–143
- wireless bridging, 144–145
- wireless local area network (WLAN), 134
- wireless network adapters, 139–140
- wireless networks
 - about, 133–134
 - antennas, 137
 - connecting to, 147–149
 - frequencies, 135–137
 - range, 140–141
 - roaming with, 144
 - security of, 149–153
 - spectrum, 137–139
 - terminologies, 134–135
 - wavelength, 137
 - waves, 135–137
- wireless PCI card, 141
- wireless providers, 158
- wireless router, 143–144
- wireless USB adapter, 141
- wire stripper, 120
- wiring closet, 131
- workgroups
 - choosing, 197–198
 - names, 40
 - networks, 40
 - templates, 65–67
 - Windows Server, 197–198
- worm, 344

X

XOR operation, 89

Z

Zendesk, 279–280